

See what employees are saying about legal issues¹

Many working adults are not prepared to handle legal issues and don't know where to find an attorney they trust.

54%

of adults feel unprepared to handle unforeseen legal events

58%

are concerned about paying for a good attorney

29%

are concerned about finding a good attorney

Dealing with legal issues can lead to unexpected time off of work.

31% of respondents ages 21-34 years old had taken unexpected time off work during the past 12 months to deal with a legal issue

14% of adults ages 35-49 had taken time off of work for legal issues

Satisfaction is high among those who have a legal plan.

90%

or more expressed satisfaction with their legal plan overall, the quality of attorneys and the coverage provided

80%

or more said that it is easy to access services and that they felt they had a successful outcome from using the legal plan

All ages are interested in legal plans, especially Millennial employees.

50%

Adults aged 21-34

35%

Adults aged 35-49

31%

Adults aged 50+

...of adults said they would be interested in purchasing a legal plan through their employer

A legal plan provides peace of mind for employees.

73%

agreed that they are prepared for unforeseen legal events

82%

of those enrolled in a legal plan through an employer agreed that they worry less about unexpected financial issues because of their employer benefits

85%

of those enrolled in a legal plan through an employer agreed that having a legal plan would save them money if they have legal issues

For more insights, visit www.legalplans.com/white-papers and download Hyatt Legal Plans most recent whitepaper — Improving Employee Wellness through Legal Benefits

1. Research conducted by Harris Poll on behalf of Hyatt Legal Plans, Inc., a MetLife Company, 2015